

Should I or Shouldn't I?

Self Check In Time

How are you feeling friends? I have felt pulled between longing to go out then hibernating at home. My head and my heart have been struggling with the gravity of what is going on and some personal stuff has been surfacing on an epic scale. Seriously though, I think perhaps when I agreed to come back down I said 'THROW IT ALL AT ME THIS TIME ROUND, SHE'LL BE RIGHT!'

So my brain can cope I am now in a space of one day at a time. Sometimes, one hour at a time. Shrinking the Global Collective Energy down to Australia, then Victoria, then Melbourne, then my suburb, right down to what I can control in my own home and then I create. What an amazing opportunity this has been for self reflection, resting, exploring and self discovery.

I already feel like I've done my Winter hibernation but guess what? Winter is here so I get a few more months to lock myself away in my art room and play. I quite like my own company so I'm looking forward to it.

Now I'm going to sign off and follow up with a little of what I have been up to, so scroll on down and get inspired <3

Stay safe and well.

Namaste
